Jesus did not abandon His followers in the midst of the storm. Jesus spoke. The winds obeyed His voice.

From Luke 8:22-25: "The boat was being swamped...The disciples went and woke him saying "Master, Master, we're going to drown!" He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters...all was calm."

Evil spirits tormented the man. Jesus spoke. The spirits knew and obeyed Him. They left the man.

From Luke 8:26 – 39. When a demon possessed man saw Jesus, he cried out. Jesus commanded the evil spirit to come out of the man. The man went away and told everyone how much Jesus had done for him.

His power is at work in my life when I love and obey God and love my neighbour.

In Luke 10:25 to 37, we find the greatest commandments: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind; and love your neighbour as yourself." Jesus told a story about a Samaritan who lived according to these commandments and told His followers to live the same way.

When we walk with the Lord
In the light of His Word,
What a glory He sheds on our way!
While we do His good will,
He abides with us still,
And with all who will trust and obey.

Trust and obey,
For there's no other way
To be happy in Jesus
But to trust and obey.

Jesus, Lord To Me

Jesus, Jesus, Lord to me;
Master, Saviour, Prince of Peace!
Ruler of my heart today,
Jesus, Lord to me.

Jesus, Jesus, Lord to me;
Master, Saviour, Prince of Peace!
Ruler of my heart today,
Jesus, Lord to me.

TO MEMORIZE

Here is a verse from the first letter that John wrote to his fellow Christians.

The one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.
I John 4:4

ALSO FROM THE BIBLE

The apostle John teaches us that to be forgiven of our sins and free from them, we must confess them. When we speak openly with God in prayer and admit to Him that we have sinned, God promises to forgive us. In I John 1:9 we read "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness."

As we are cleansed from all unrighteousness, the Holy Spirit fills us. The Holy Spirit poured out on the day of Pentecost is the Spirit of Jesus. When we confess and repent of our sins and ask for His forgiveness, he cleanses us and fills us with His Spirit. The presence of God brings peace. His Spirit drives out fear.

II Timothy 1:7: "For God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a spirit of power, of love and of self-discipline."
